The data doesn't lie

• 2x+

retention rate

Loan retention rates climb to over 60%—more than triple the 18% industry standard.

• 20%

year-one revenue increase

Loan production increases 20% per loan officer in the first year—and more than 40% by year three.

• 20%

productivity increase

Identify high-quality opportunities faster so you can spend more time connecting with borrowers and homeowners.

“

Total Expert has streamlined our process to where everyone gets the exact same experience, and all of our fine details are tracked in Total Expert. It keeps me organized and lowers my stress levels because I can see what my weeks look like and move things around to manage my own schedule. I recommend everyone jump in and get started. You'll wonder why you didn't use Total Expert sooner.”
